

Figure S2. Q-Q plot for female lethality. The black dots show the observed  $P$ -values against the  $P$ -values expected under the null hypothesis and the red straight line is the distribution if the observed and expected values are equal.